

Welcome to the Futures Conference 2022!

Finland Futures Research Centre and Finland Futures Academy are proud to organise their 22nd Futures Conference next summer! This time the event titled 'Planetary Futures of Health and Wellbeing' will create a unique cross-disciplinary platform where participants can meet, share, and discuss new ideas concerning futures of health and wellbeing.

The main conference programme will consist of keynote lectures, parallel sessions and participatory workshops. As the event is organised in a hybrid mode, we will be also using a versatile, virtual platform where all the participants can find the programme, live streamed presentations of the keynote speakers, links to the various online sessions and a poster exhibition, and more. Attendees in Turku will have a long-awaited opportunity to meet face to face with old and new colleagues.

So please mark your calendars, follow us on Twitter and/or sign up for updates, fill in your early-bird registration, start planning your travelling, and spread the word in your community. We are excited to finally be able to arrange Futures Conference live again and see you here in Turku in June!

SNEAK PEEK AT THE ARRANGEMENTS

You can participate in-person or online

We encourage in-person attendance of the conference but are also excited to accommodate virtual participation for both authors and attendees who cannot travel to Turku, Finland.

Early-bird registration by 31 March

The conference organisation puts great effort into making the conference affordable to a wide audience. Note the deadline for 'early-bird' registrations by 31 March 2022.

Be early-bird with your hotel reservation too

We have reserved a quota of rooms in the venue hotel 'Marina Palace' as well in some of the hotels in the city centre. The reservations will be made on "first come, first served" basis.

Join us at the Conference Dinner

In the evening of the 2nd conference day (16 June) you are most welcome to the conference dinner. Tickets can be purchased during the registration.
